Exchange Student To Be Guest

Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae will gather Tuesday evening, Feb. 25, at 7:45, at the home of Mrs. George Stamps, 2513 Via Rivera, Palos Verdes Estates. Purpose of the meeting is to introduce an exchange student from Denmark to the group.

Karen Sejersdal, from Copenhagen, is the honored guest of the evening. The 18-year-old student will answer questions concerning the American Field Service and her life in Denmark. She is fluent in four languages: English, French, German and, of course, her native tongue. Karen has joined the senior class at Chadwick and plans to remain on campus until June. She hopes to study law on her return to Copenhagen.

The Palos Verdes Chapter of the American Field Service made the arrangements for Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Anderson, 2537 Via Rivera, Palos Verdes Estates, to become Karen's foster family. She now has an American sister, Becky, 18, who also attends Chadwick.

Zeta Tau Alpha meets every fourth Tuesday of the month. Those planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. Stamps.

PLAN WORKSHOP... Mrs. Harriette Morris, left, program coordinator and Mrs. Vesta Neil, historian, are busy planning the Symposium Workshop on "Social Service" to be sponsored by the Harbor Medical Assistants Assn. on Sunday, Feb. 23 at the Jump'n Jack restaurant, 2880 Pacific Coast Hwy., Torrance. The meeting will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until 4:30 p.m. Registrations may be made with Mrs. Pauline Hewitt, c/o Dr. Peter Maguire, 2810 Artesia Blvd., Redondo.

Mothers Club Membership On Increase

"The membership of Twin Club seems to keep pace with the area's population explosion," said Mrs. Andrew Meier, South Bay Mothers of Twin Club president. "We keep a constant membership of 75 for which our charter allows, in spite of the fact that members move out of the area sometimes. Rarely does a member resign her membership because of lack of interest."

Inducted recently were Mmes. John Donnelly, Layton Carr, Dale Walker, Robert Gray, Torrance; John Miles, Gardena; Kenneth Fowler, San Pedro; Bruce Edson, Rolling Hills; John Crackel, Lawndale; Frank Sapient, Wilmington; Kenneth Fowler, Hermosa Beach.

Most unusual membership roster item is the inclusion of two Mrs. Kenneth Fowlers—Mary from San Pedro and Louise from Hermosa.

Last meeting of the group was held at the Hunting Horn, Peninsula Center. Husbands were guests to hear an address by Dr. and Mrs. Waldo Dunbar, Portuguese Bend, who discussed family relations in our modern day.

Sustaining philanthropy of Twin Club is the pediatrics ward at Harbor General Hospital. Chairmen Mrs. Robert Sowell, Palos Verdes Estates, and Mrs. Russell Cameron, Torrance, make weekly trips to the hospital to deposit used clothing, toys, games and baby furniture.

Anyone interested in membership should call Mrs. James Husereau of Torrance.

Fuchsia Unit to Hear Speaker

Jack Maris, landscape professional, will be guest speaker tomorrow evening at the meeting of the Lomita Fuchsia Society, 26607 S. Western Ave., Lomita. His topic will be "Landscaping with Tropicals."

C. O. Eipper, president, will conduct the meeting. Mrs. Wilma Eddy is in charge of the plant table.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting to which the public is invited.

Palo Alto Trip

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass returned Monday to their Beech Ave. home after a several days visit in Palo Alto where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Hooper, formerly of Torrance. During their stay they made a two-day cruise aboard the Hoopers yacht across the bay to the deltas.

LaMontagne-Jones Vows Read in Lutheran Rites

The rainbow colors were carried out in the gowns and bouquets at the early evening wedding ceremony on Feb. 7 at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church when Miss Carol LaMontagne became the bride of Glen Jones. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman LaMontagne 1021 W. 227th St., Torrance approached the altar on the arm of her father.

Her wedding gown was of Chantilly lace detailed with a sweetheart neckline and bouffant skirt. A crown of sequins and pearls secured the illusion veil. White orchids and carnations interspersed with lilies-of-the-valley formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Brenda Davison, in pink nylon and net, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Lorraine LaMontagne and Miss Diane Anania. Miss LaMontagne was in blue nylon and lace and Miss Anania wore green nylon and lace. Their bouquets were of yellow roses.

James S. Goodwin was best man and ushers were Jack Smarslak and Bob Dunlap.

Mrs. Carla Passow played the nuptial music as Rev. E. M. Passow officiated at the marriage.

The 150 guests were entertained at a reception at the Torrance Elks lodge.

Following a honeymoon, the newlyweds are at home at 1021 W. 227th St., Torrance.

The bride is a senior at Narbonne High School.

Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jones of Jefferson City, Mo., is serving with the United States Navy stationed in Long Beach.

Court Our Lady of Victory Initiates in Formal Ritual

Formal reception ceremonies were conducted Thursday by Grand Regent, Mrs. Laura M. Dupont, Court Our Lady of Victory, Catholic Daughters of America. The candlelight ritual was under the direction of Mrs. Gust Sunquist, district deputy, from Court Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, Los Angeles.

Dressed in full length white formals topped with the colorful ritual robes of their stations, the following officers assisted Mrs. Dupont: Mmes. Felix O'Reilly, vice regent; Carmel Clune, prophetess; Rhonald Metro, lecturer; Basil Shannon, financial secretary; Frank Ives, treasurer; Margaret Breidenbach, historian; Sy Durham, monitor; Gonzalvo Grijalva, sentinel; trustees Charles Fischer, John Condon and Richard Wurm, Jr. acting as banner bearer and guides; and trustees Edmund Chandlee, Ernest Tarrin and Fred Gervig as the color guard.

Initiates into the national organization were Mmes. Joseph Capello, Mary M. Tressel, and Miss Marlene Shannon, new members of Court Our Lady of Victory; and Mmes. William Gibson and Arthur Mann, of neighboring Court Madonna of the Hills.

Rev. J. Augustine O'Gorman court chaplain, in welcoming the candidates, chose as his topic the motto of the organization, "Unity and Charity," exemplifying the dignity of womanhood and the broad scope of the ten point program of the CDA organization.

Lecturer, Mrs. Rhonald Metro, led members in a share-the-faith seminar discussion. Panel participants were Mmes. Edgar Perry, Raymond Slick, Willard Phippen, and Sam Estes, Jr.

The impressive ceremony was enhanced by a candlelighted statue of the Virgin Mary, with pink roses and ivy tastefully arranged at the foot of the statue.

Mrs. Roger Ste. Marie presided at the guest book, which included the names of Mmes. Arthur Rinaldi, state chairman of Juniors and recently appointed national regional consultant of the Junior Catholic Daughters, from Court Our Lady of Providence; Wesley Muzik, district deputy, Hollywood Riviera; and Grand Regents Ted Smith, Court Our Lady of the Sacred Heart; Francis Wills, Court Madonna of the Hills; Hugh Derby, Court Compton; James Lysaght, Court St.

Michael; Anna Ertz, Court Our Lady of Providence; and Charles Butterfield, vice regent of Court St. Catherine.

District deputies, Mmes. Sundquist and Muzik and past grand regents of the receiving court presided at the beautifully appointed serving table which repeated the theme of pink roses and ivy with candleabra of tall pink tapers. Assisting were Mrs. Norman Dupont, hospitality chairman and hostesses Mmes. Richard Abshear, Florence O'Byrne, James Reis, Noel Riner, Raymond Russell and Leroy Siddons.

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Somehow there's something unusually appealing about a baby playing with his feet or just kicking up his heels at random. But your baby's foot-play is more than a joy to behold. It's an important part of foot and muscle development. The curling and uncurling of tiny toes... the stretching, pushing and pulling, all play a strengthening role in preparing those exquisite extremities for future activities: creeping, standing, walking. Great self-developers, babies.

Another developing idea. One of the truly effective contributors to your baby's growth and muscle development is protein. Gerber High Protein Cereal provides an excellent way to give your baby quality protein in a delightfully palatable form. It has a 35% protein content and a tasty, toasty, nut-like flavor that appeals to babies and toddlers alike. And, like all good-tasting Gerber Cereals, it's enriched with iron, calcium and important B-vitamins for further nutritional benefits.

Occupation hazards. Once your "up-and-at-em" baby gets to be the least bit mobile, assorted bumps, plops and bruises are unavoidable. Certainly you'll want to comfort your cherub when minor mishaps occur but it isn't wise to oversympathize. Being too protective may actually instill a fear of trying new educational adventures.

Relief measure. Biting, biting, biting... a real need for teethers. Gerber Teething Biscuits are designed to give baby biting satisfaction at its best. Because they're pleasantly flavored, extra-hard and waffle-surfaced for good gripping. Scalloped edges make for easy holding and skillful maneuvering.

Travel tip. Gerber Teething Biscuits make good "traveling companions" when you and baby go visiting. They're individually wrapped in sparkling cellophane, so you can pop 'em in pocket or purse with purity preserved. Gerber® Baby Foods, Box 72, Fremont, Mich.
